EDGRENS SOME FAVORITE WRESTLING HOLDS OF TOM JENKINS, WHO MEETS PARR TO-NIGHT GOTCH EASILY

I now seems likely that New York is to witness a revival of boxing. True, he boxers will be amateurs and the cloves will weigh eight ounces, but any who has ever seen a couple of ambitious amateurs mix it up knows there will be plenty of action every moment that two boys are in the ring.

Why poorly conditioned amateurs should be allowed to slug each other to their hearts' content and the ban be placed on perfectly trained professionals whose skill makes an injury almost an stibility only the Albany mind can NLY three weeks until the Eastern racing season begins. On March 23 the gates will be thrown at Bennings, and the battle bethe bookmakers and bettors will be on. As usual, both will receive many d knocks during the season, and the only real gainers will be stockholders various racing associations. They usual, draw nice large divifeated by "Young" Donahue, of Roxa score of 250 to 157 Frank bury, last night by a referee'e decision last night defeated Louis Crane at the end of the twelve rounds. The in the 14.2 balk-line billiard tourna bout throughout was a very tame afment for the professional short-ston championship of Greater New York in progress at Edward McLaughlin's deadeny. Hoppe nursed the balls for the profession of 35 and 26, and the loser made 21 and 20.

There was considerable safety play until the 100-mark had been reached, and then Hoppe ran away from his man, but Donahue evaded all his opponent. The winner's average was throughout.
